

THE HERALD.

GRAVES DEMOCRATS.
In Convention they instructed for Mr. Bates for Appellate Judge.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17, 1878.

For Congress.

We are authorized to announce JAMES T. CLAY of Henderson as a candidate for Congress in this the Second Congressional District. Election in November, 1878.

We are authorized to announce A. T. CRAVEN of Henderson as a candidate for Congress in this the Second Congressional District. Election November, 1878.

Senator Hill.

The Legislature adjourned on the 10th inst. after a lengthy session in which many bills of interest were passed and some of importance failed. One in which the people of this part of the State felt a very great interest, the Green and Barren River Bill, was called up in the Senate by our able and trusted Senator, Hon. Sam. E. Hill, who was complimented by the reporter of the Courier as having made a powerful speech in its favor, and, from the opposition to it, we judge our Senator must have given one of his ablest efforts to have carried it through the Senate by such a triumphant majority. This evidence of his fidelity to the interests of this portion of the State, with the whole course of his legislative career to the true interests of the State, verifies the expectations of his constituency in his ability and integrity, and we feel proud of the man whose wisdom and dignity has borne him through this arduous legislative struggle in conflict with the ablest minds of the State, to reflect honor upon his district, win the highest respect of his opponents in their encounters, and shot additional lustre upon himself. The citizens welcome Senator Hill home, conscious that he has discharged his duty and made a record worthy of remembrance and to the honor of the State. We may safely predict for Senator Hill a promising future. He is like a good tree bringing forth fruit in its season.

Stand Firmly by Your Colors

We are coming into line once more for the battle in Old Kentucky, and the greatest, most momentous question every man who has heretofore acted with and contributed to the success of the Democratic party can put to himself is, must I stand firmly by the old party, to secure all that is demanded by the true interests of the nation, against the alliance of corrupt money power with the more or less corrupt Radicals?

A moment's reflection will suffice to arm you with all the energy and confidence of old veterans following beneath the honored standard of the trusty and tried Jeffersonian Democracy. By our united efforts we gained a signal victory, after years of fierce conflicts, over false Republicanism, stoked by rings and monopolies, shod with iron and led by the legions of paid officials, and with a majority in the Lower House of Congress and nearly a tie in the Senate, brought to bear the legislation of the country to the honor of the Republic and the good of the people. Must we stand fast now, to save what we have gained and accomplish all we desire, or seek in a new party to gain the same and more speedily? This is a fatal delusion, and will only ent in the re-covery of the Radical party to power, and place us back in the shackles of the corrupt dynasty that have nearly ruined a once thriving and industrious people. So close is the vote in many of the Congressional districts in the United States now held by the Democracy, that a few thousand votes will give the ascendancy to the Republican party. To avert this we must stand firmly and trustingly together, looking with suspicion on all new parties and independent movements to distract the Democracy and serve the opp. side. The bought-up Brick Pomeroy, vacillating and ambitious Duncan, cunning and treacherous old Ben Butler, with the new National organization, is for another purpose than to seduce the Democrats from the work they have already begun, and secure a clear majority in Congress again, that the same old corruption of money power may rule, centralization and tyranny overturn the liberties of the people, and our republican institutions become a despotism. We must not, cannot falter, now that we are on the threshold of securing the stability and prosperity of the country by the steady charges of the old Democratic legion, with her heroic sisters fighting in the front rank and demolishing the walls and forts of corruption that victory may be complete and the nation reseeded. Be true to your colors, and witness the victory of your grand old party, coming up out of the storm of battle with songs of triumph and waving her banners amid the light of peace and prosperity.

Dockkeeper Polk has been dismissed from office. His chief offence seems to have been his zeal in behalf of Congressional friends. He made more appointments than the law allowed, yielding too readily to the importunities of the members. It is right that he was expelled, but when justice is there in letting those go free who testified him to violate the law?

THE HERALD.

The Mass. Convention at Mayfield, held on the 8th inst., for the purpose of appointing delegates to the Appellate Nominating Convention and instructing them, was the largest assembly of the kind ever held in that promising little city. Near one thousand people were present, and the town looked like a bee hive.

Before the opening of the Convention speeches were made by Judges Bennett and Sweeney and Col. Hines. Considerable time was occupied in drafting resolutions and getting the Convention into order, and it was near 3 o'clock when a nomination was made.

The delegations were as follows: Hines, 423; Bennett, 280; and Sweeney, 200.

It was resolved that the hindmost in the second ballot be dropped, when another ballot was taken with the same result.

The third and 1st ballot followed, and was as follows: Hines, 423; Bennett, 292.

Speeches were then made by Mr. Hines and Judge Bennett.

Mr. H. S. Hale, the County Chairman, presided, and the newspaper men of the place were secretaries.

Graves cast a vote of 39 in the general convention, and the securing of this vote is quite an "item" to Mr. Hines, and he is to be congratulated.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION OF THE FOURTH APPELLATE DISTRICT

Henderson the Third and Wednesday, the 12th of June the Time.

As Chairman of the Democratic party of this district, I addressed a card on the 23d of February, to the Chairman of each County Committee asking an expression of opinion to the time and place for holding a district convention to nominate a candidate for Appellate Judge in the place of Hon. Wm. Lindsay, whose term of office will soon expire.

To that end responses have been received from twenty-three counties, leaving six unbroken. Of that number, eleven favored the city of Henderson, eight Hopkinsville, and four, other points.

I have delayed the call of a convention, hoping that all would be heard from, but do not feel justified in further delay. In obedience to what I conceive to be the wishes of the District I now appoint the city of Henderson as the place, and to meet the views of many of the counties and three of the known candidates for the nomination, with no objections from the other, Wednesday, the 12th of June, as the time for the holding of said convention, and earnestly request the County Committees to take such action in their respective counties as will secure a fair and full representation of the Democracy in the convention.

W. B. MARCHEN,
Chair, 4th Appellate District Com.
April 19th, 1878.

Our Quarterly Court is in session this week.

Rev. T. D. Rust is a candidate for Assessor in Muhlenberg county.

Circuit Court is in session in our neighboring town, Greenville, this week.

Citizens and Union committees have both instructed for Judge Caswell, Bennett for Appellate Judge.

Lient. Governor J. C. Underwood, of Bowling Green, is a candidate for Governor.

Col. Jno. W. Caldwell is a candidate for re-election to Congress from the Bowling Green District.

It took 15,000 pounds of ice to keep the late lamented Legislature cool. Oh, what a hot set they were.

Wm. M. Tweed, of New York, paid the penalty for all his ring swindles by dying in Ludlow-street jail last Friday.

Gen. Fayette Hewitt will be a candidate for Auditor of State. Gen. Nuckols, Quartermaster General, will also be a candidate for the same position.

Four hundred and ninety-seven dollars and forty cents was returned to the Treasury by members of the late Legislature on account of mileage overdrawn.

The last Legislature voted themselves $1,576.44 worth of newspaper. Where on earth did they find authority for this?

Webster county, in primary election, on the 8th inst., gave a majority to Judge Caswell, Bennett for the Appellate Judgeship.

Henderson county instructed for Judge Caswell, Bennett, for Judge of the Court of Appeals, in Convention last Saturday.

Mr. Lew Holmes, of the wholesale grocery house of Moore, Bremaker & Co., Louisville, Ky., was in town this week, in the interest of his firm. He has a very good trade here.

A Terrible Tragedy in Big Bend, Mingo County.

On Sunday morning, the 7th inst., an affray took place between William Allen, Elijah Allen, Mr. Westfall and Mr. Smith, on one side, and Sterling Alexander, Wm. Noble, Phillip Nibley, Emory Mond, Walker Mond and John Beeler, on the other side. Wm. Noble was killed and John Beeler badly wounded. Allen and Alexander gave themselves up, and others have been arrested. The trouble grew out of a love affair between a daughter of Wm. Allen and Sterling Alexander.

The Dennerup of Union county, met on Monday, the 8th, instant, and instructed for Judge Caswell, Bennett, as first choice, and Judge Geo. W. Williams as second choice, for Appellate Judge.

Respectfully, W. M. PARK, Sr.

Primer, 12 cent. desired.

At an adjourned meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee for Ohio county, held at the County Court Clerk's office in Hartford, April 16th, 1878.

Present: E. B. Walker, J. W. Ford, J. L. Collins, Tyler Griffin, A. L. Morton, H. D. McHenry. By proxy, Z. W. Griffin and Jesse E. Fogle.

In motion, the committee proceeded to take action as to the best mode to secure the choice of the Democrats of the county for candidates to fill the various county offices at the approaching August election. And thereupon the following preamble and resolutions were adopted, viz:

That we deem it expedient, under existing circumstances, that the Democratic party of Ohio county should take some action to insure harmony in its ranks at the August election, and to that end, we resolve that it is in harmony with the wish of the majority of the Democrats of the county that a Primary Election should be held to select candidates on the 1st of the various county offices to be filled in August 1878; therefore, be it

The delegations were as follows: Hines, 423; Bennett, 280; and Sweeney, 200.

It was resolved that the hindmost in the second ballot be dropped, when another ballot was taken with the same result.

The third and 1st ballot followed, and was as follows: Hines, 423; Bennett, 292.

Speeches were then made by Mr. Hines and Judge Bennett.

Mr. H. S. Hale, the County Chairman, presided, and the newspaper men of the place were secretaries.

Lick, last Monday. Seventy-five thousand feet was the number shipped. This firm has twenty cars of staves shipped per week over the P. & E. R. R.

Cromwell Lodge, No. 420 A. Y. M., is arranging to have a celebration on the 24th of June, 1878, the proceeds of which will go to the benefit of the Widows' and Orphans' Home, Louisville, Ky.

old Uncle Wm. Bryant, of No. Creek country, made a speech last Saturday on the highway to the road bands on Temperance. He acquired himself well with the first attempt.

We held the pleasure of a call from Rev. J. C. Grahame, now at Prince of Wales, Beckbridge county, but formerly a citizen of this country, on Monday last.
He is in fair health, and is a warm friend.

One of the "thugs" of the law" and a thief, Yester, had a little unpleas-antures last Sunday. The said thief was caught by the spirit of retribution, and brought on the engagement, and got planted from his prominent perch by a collision with the exponents of the right arm of a cathedral individual.

Our old friend and boyhood playmate John B. Hunter, called on us last week, and left $1.50 for the Herald.

He was on his way to Evansville with a raft of logs and got rather badly, though not seriously, hurt above here, by getting caught between the raft and check-log and sprained a little.

Hardford will probably soon have a bank. The proper legislation was had by the Legislature, in 1876, and the following named gentlemen are the initors.

Z. W. Griffin, H. D. McHenry, J. F.
Collins, J. A. Thomas, J. F. Austin, Edmund Rose, S. C. McRoy, J. B.
Wells.

Shares of stock will be $100 each, and 250 shares are required before organizing.

Dr. H. S. Woods, of Litchfield, was with us during the past two weeks, prating of his profession, dentistry. We hoped him to be a pleasant, affable gentlemen, and while he did a good deal of work, which, so far as we have seen, gives satisfaction. He will be here again on the first Monday in June next, and will remain a few days at the Hardford House. See his advertisement elsewhere, in which he guarantees satisfaction.

Miss Bettie Cook made a very narrow escape last Saturday evening. She was thrown from a horse, and fell under the horse and he stepped on one side of her face. The horse was newly shod, and it had stepped a little farther over, might probably have disfigured her for life or killed her. The fall stunned her considerably. She is all right again, except the cut in her face and on one finger, which is still healing up.

If you wish to have an everyday or Sunday suit of clothes made to order he will do it for you by J. Winter & Co., Merchant Tailors, corner of Third and Market streets, Louisville. Their prices are very low—but Sunday suit originated in their establishment.

Frank Westerfield and Boyd Westerfield, of Hartfort's precinct can nearly drown one day last week. They had been out hunting and aimed to cross Hough creek at Indian Ford on a small raft, belonging to J. L. Miller.

They were swift and run up the upper side of the craft and capsized it. Frank was under water and was soon up again and got out, but the craft and him were lost. The boat was found later, and the two were found.

Willie Edison has moved his jewelry shop to Dave Morton's furniture store near the Hartford House, where he will be glad to see his friends and all others who may need watches, clocks and jewelry repaired. You can do better by calling on him than to go elsewhere.

Mr. J. Warren Barnett wants it distinctly understood that he is a sure enough candidate for assessor. He has had considerable experience in business affairs of different kinds, and it would not do up a good list if it would not give him a chance.

Mr. Thomas Miller would like to be sent to jail for four years by the people of this county. He says he has done enough to deserve being sent there, and wants to know whether the people will send him or not. Read his announcement.

We omitted last week to note the return of Mr. F. W. Griffin, of St. Louis, Mo., to Elizabethtown on the 6th inst., after having made a considerable stay with friends and relatives here. We regretted his departure, for we enjoyed his good company here very much.

Our Senator, Hon. Sam E. Hill, reached home last week from the long and tedious Legislative session, looking as well as could be expected, in fact, we believe the stay at Frankfort this winter has improved his already handsome appearance. He went to work at once on reselling home, and in laboring very hard to get ready for the approaching term of eight months.

Mr. Samuel Ralph died last Monday at his residence two miles south east of Taylor Field. He had been laid at work for a long time, and from some unknown cause came in about four o'clock and threw himself on the bed beside his sick wife, and in less than five minutes was dead without making known to her or any one else any illness whatever. He died of apoplexy.

On Tuesday night of last week the dwelling of Mr. J. C. Tunn, near Cool Springs church, was struck by lightning, causing considerable damage to building and furniture. Mr. Tunn was a good man, and was thus saved from death. If Mr.
Tunn and son had been at home a terrible loss of life would certainly have been the result.

Wearing Mourning.

Jailer E. L. Wise and B. S. Foster had a difference of opinion last Friday night, and Wise has been wearing mourning about his eyes ever since. Foster was very entertaining.

Home for Sale.

The appointment of Rev. W. W. Cook to preach a sermon on Baptism at Equality church, Ohio county, has been enacted, during the late session of the General Assembly, exempting the town of Hartford from the payment of poll-tax for county levy purposes. Such is not the case, and I ask a suspension of judgment till I can prepare a card explaining the charter for the town of Hartford, which I did have passed through the Senate, and which Dr.
Miller passed through the House, our reason for passing it, and all the facts connected therewith, and when the public get to understand the matter it will be found that there has been "much additional noise" about nothing.

I will explain the matter in the meantime, next week, to the public.

Miss Calesta Snell, who had charge of a school at Hopewell, for five months past, returned home last Monday—her school having closed.

Mr. Galen C. Gentry is no longer a candidate for Constable in the Fordsville district.

Mr. J. E. Yager and wife, left yesterday morning, to visit relatives in Owensboro. They will be about a week.

Spring Clothing in endless variety, at bankrupt prices, can be found at E.

Snell's.

Ladies' hand-trimmed hats of the very newest and latest styles, at prices to suit the time, for sale by J. P. Barnard,

Beaver Dam, Kentucky.

Rough creek has been full of rafting of logs and save boats for the last few days. Some 3,000 logs have floated by this time, bound for Evansville, Ind.

Ladies, go to E. Snell's for your new Parasols. They have the newest styles.

Furniture—J. P. Barnard, of Beaver

Dam, has just received a lot of nice furniture, which he offers for sale at very low prices. 13-21
